

FIRST-TIME VOTER?

Here's a quick guide through the voting process, from registration to Election Day.

1 REGISTER!

In order to vote in any election, you need to be registered to vote 29 days prior to that election.

YOU'RE ELIGIBLE TO VOTE IN AZ IF:

- You're a U.S. citizen.
- You're a state and county resident 29 days before the election.
- You will be 18 years old or older before the next election (yes, you can register before you turn 18)
- You can write your name or make your mark (unless prevented by a disability).

OKAY, I'M ELIGIBLE, NOW WHAT?

- Visit servicearizona.com to register to vote.
- Make sure you have your driver license or ID card on hand.
- You can also sign up for the Active Early Voting List (AEVL) to automatically receive your ballot by mail before every election.

YOU'RE INELIGIBLE TO VOTE IN AZ IF

- You have been adjudicated an incapacitated person.
- You have been convicted of a treason or a felony, unless you have had your civil rights restored.
- *Note: For a first-time felony conviction, civil rights are automatically restored upon completion of a person's sentence and payment of any fines and restitution.

2 FIGURE OUT YOUR DISTRICT.

Your district determines which local elections you can vote in and which voting locations you can go to on Election Day.

To find your district, just type in your address at azcleaselections.gov/voter-dashboard

Enter Location

3 FIND VOTER RESOURCES.

Before you vote, you'd probably like to know what exactly you're voting for.

If you're registered to vote, you'll automatically receive the Voter Education Guide in the mail for state primary and general elections. This guide provides statements by candidates running for office, as well as more voting information.

You can also visit azcleaselections.gov for more candidate information and propositions specific to your district.

4 VOTE!

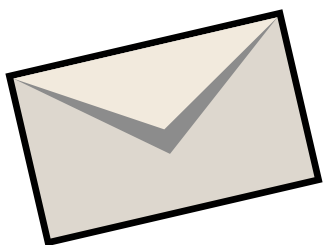

In Arizona, you can vote by mail or in person.

Vote By Mail

If you signed up for the AEVL, your ballot will be mailed out starting 27 days before an election.

To request a ballot by mail for a specific election, contact your county recorder at least 11 days before that election.

Don't forget to sign the affidavit envelope before returning your ballot!

Vote In Person

Did you know you can vote early in person starting 27 days before an election?

If you want to vote in person, you can visit azcleaselections.gov/voter-dashboard to find voting locations in your district.

Don't forget to bring your ID with you!

If you're not sure what to bring, take the ID quiz at azcleaselections.gov/how-to-vote/what-id-do-i-need-at-the-polls
