Subject: Complaint to Secretary of State

Dear Secretary Bennett and Director Collins:

I am writing to report campaign finance violations by Doug Ducey's gubernatorial exploratory committee, Ducey 2014 (hereafter, the "Ducey Campaign"). Despite Mr. Ducey's promise of "full transparency and financial clarity" to Arizona citizens, his most recent campaign finance report conceals illegal contributions from voters and elections regulators.

Accordingly, I respectfully request that the Secretary of State's office notify the Attorney General of said violations as required by Section 16-924(A) of the Arizona Revised Statutes, and that the Clean Elections Commission promptly investigate the matter pursuant to Section 16-956(B) of the Arizona Revised Statutes.

Please see attached.

Thank you for your time and attention to this matter of public concern.

Sincerely,

Ashley Nicole

Sara Larsen

Ms. Ashley Nicole,

We have received your complaint regarding Doug Ducey's exploratory campaign committee. Commission rule A.A.C. R2-20-203 requires the following:

- The full name and address of the complainant;
- The contents of the complaint shall be sworn to and signed in the presence of a notary public and notarized; and
- Contain a clear and concise recitation of the facts which describe a violation of a statute or rule over which the Commission jurisdiction.

Your complaint does not comply with A.A.C. R2-20-203. If you wish to file a formal complaint, please amend your complaint to comply with A.A.C. R2-20-203.

Thank you.
