

Clean Elections Social Media Policy

Clean Elections welcomes dialogue through our social media accounts and encourages residents and voters to ask questions and share their opinions about Arizona elections. All comments and content posted by users are monitored and we ask that people be respectful when sharing thoughts. This page is not monitored during weekends or holidays.

User-generated posts or comments could be rejected, removed, or hidden by Clean Elections staff if the content:

- Contains profane language or content.
- Contains sensitive personal information.
- Conducts or encourages illegal activity.
- Is discriminatory.
- Threatens or harasses a person.
- Incites or promotes violence.
- Includes sexual content or links to sexual content.
- Intends to defame any person, group or organization.
- Makes or publishes false, vicious or malicious statements concerning any person.
- Contains information that reasonably could compromise individual or public safety.
- Discloses confidential or proprietary information.
- Unsolicited business proposals or endorsements/promotion of commercial services, products, or entities.
- Infringement of copyrights, trademarks, or other intellectual property.
- Off-topic or irrelevant comments or posts, spam or links to unrelated sites.

Clean Elections reserves the right to delete posts or comments that are objectionable, offensive, irrelevant, or inaccurate. Determination of whether there has been a violation of this policy, and whether any action is warranted, is made by Clean Elections staff members. Violators of this policy may be barred from posting.
